

BEST PRACTICES OF GUWAHATI COLLEGE FOR THE YEAR 2018-19

Best Practice - 1 Honouring Deceased Colleagues

The teachers of the college organize at least one lecture programme in the college every year in memory of their deceased colleagues.

This year Dr. Arupjyoti Saikia, Associate Professor of History, IIT (Guwahati) delivered a lecture in September 2018 in memory of Late Dr. Bandhram Deka. He spoke about the history of the Kaziranga National Park.

2 December (2018) was observed as Science Day in memory of Late Dr. Abdur Rahim, former HoD of Chemistry in the college. Dr. Pradip Sarma, Ex-Professor of Geography, Cotton University, was the Resource Person on the occasion.

These lecture programmes are funded entirely by the present teachers of the college.

Best Practice - 2 NSS Activities

As in the earlier years, the college unit of the NSS continues to engage itself in different activities within the campus as well as outside. Its various achievement during the year include:

1. Successful organization of Swachh Bharat Internship Camp from 30 June to 10 July 2018.
2. Organizing an Annual Special Camp from 4 July to 9 July 2018.
3. Active participation in a Mega Special Camp & Orientation Programme at Gauhati University from 28 September to 30 September 2018.
4. Participation in the Pre-Republic Day Camp (Guwahati Region) from 4 November to 13 November 2018.
5. Hosting a Trekking Programme on 17-11-2018 with 100 volunteers.
6. Celebration of World AIDS Day with the theme "Know Your Status" on 1 December 2018.
7. Ms Priyanka Boro, an NSS volunteer from Guwahati College, is selected from NER to attend Republic Day Parade in New Delhi in January 2019.
