

Feedback Report (2019-20)

1. I. Feedback was conducted among 150 students out of which 128 students rated learning value as extremely good. Skills, concepts, knowledge, analytical abilities, broadening perspectives are parameters factored in to get an idea of learning value.
 II. Regarding applicability/ relevance and course content of the syllabus to real life situation, 65 students rated it as extremely good and additionally in terms of depth of the course content, 89 students rated it as extremely good.
 III. The course is considered relevant by 45 percent students and 55 percent of students found the course to be highly relevant and worthwhile for higher studies. 60 percent of the students felt that our programme(s) are at par with similar programme at other Universities.
 IV. Regarding extent of effort required by the students more than 73 percent of students rated it as extremely good. Students are satisfied as their needs are considerably fulfilled.
 V. More than 68 percent of students found the projects given by the respective departments to be relevant to learning value and are outcome oriented.
 VII. The overall rating of the students about the college were quite satisfactory.
2. 86 percent of students considered the syllabus as adequate while the remaining 14 percent of students rated the syllabus as inadequate.
3. In terms of completion of the syllabus, 65 percent students stated that 75—90 percent of syllabus was covered, while the remaining 35 percent rated that 90—100 percent was covered during the session.
4. In terms of availability of course related material, more than 48 percent students considered material available in the library to be adequate.
5. Regarding prescribed readings 70 percent of the students rated it as good.
6. In terms of internal evaluation system, 53 percent of the students rated it as very good, while 47 percent considered it as good and was generally contemplated as done in a fair and unbiased manner. Additionally, 60 percent students suggested that the total weightage of the course in the internal assessment should be 25 percent.
7. The overall student-teacher relationship at college is rated as good by 84 percent of students. Almost all the students rated the student -teacher relationship in the respective departments as very good.
8. 77 percent students found the college administrative office as helpful while 64 percent of students rated the canteen facilities as good.
9. Regarding health care facilities 53 percent of students rated good and 47 percent as average.
10. 66 percent and 34 percent of students participated in extra-curricular activities including sports and other recreational facilities respectively of the department/ college with ample support of the teachers.
11. 67% of students expressed their views that their time at the college have been fruitful to the teaching-learning process and will help them further in higher studies.
12. The overall rating of the programs are given below.

ITEM	RATING (in percentage)
	Very good	Good	Average	Poor	Very poor
Academic content	55	45
Fairness of evaluation	60	40
Interaction with faculty	86	14
Interaction with administration	78	12	10
Library facilities	58	32	10
Computer facilities	25	45	30

Canteen facilities	10	66	24
Recreational facilities	-	66	34
Extra-curricular activities	66	30	4 did not mention
Sports facilities		66	21		